

MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

Fellow Rotarians,

We have been busy and it continues! Our open house tonight has an added attraction: the unveiling of the plaque acknowledging the contributors who made the Veteran's project possible. We sent out 46 invitations and included asking them to join us after the short ceremony for refreshments. So, an excellent opportunity to thank them plus let them know more about Rotary and our service plus meet us! Please try to come with your family and friends for this special open house so we can show our hospitality proudly.

We also made the scholarship presentations to our two outstanding Interact students at Olympia High on Wednesday night. Sunday we served at the Ocoee Christian Center and while we had enough food, we were surprised to serve over 30 grateful folks. Always rewarding and humbling to witness their gratitude.

We have our upcoming golf event on June 9th. We need to get going! We are asking every member to get at least one of the following: (1) golfers (2) sponsor (3) raffle item. Plan to bring these in next week so we can organize our raffle. Please do this as it will make our event successful, which we desperately need after our last rain out! Thanks.

Yours in Service Norma

In Loving Memory

Johanna Loth (89) of Windermere/New Smyrna Beach went to join Carl, her loving husband of 55 years, Saturday, May 12, 2018. Born in Suluwesi, Indonesia. Johanna moved to the USA, with her family, in 1960. They moved to Windermere in 1965, where they raised their 3 daughters. Besides her family, Johanna's passion was children. She owned and operated Little Bo Peep of Orlando and Teddy Bear Childcare of Windermere, where she touched and nurtured the lives of hundreds of children and families. Johanna and Carl retired and moved to New Smyrna Beach in 1997 where they enjoyed entertaining family and friends. They were actively involved in their church, and the Dutch Club.

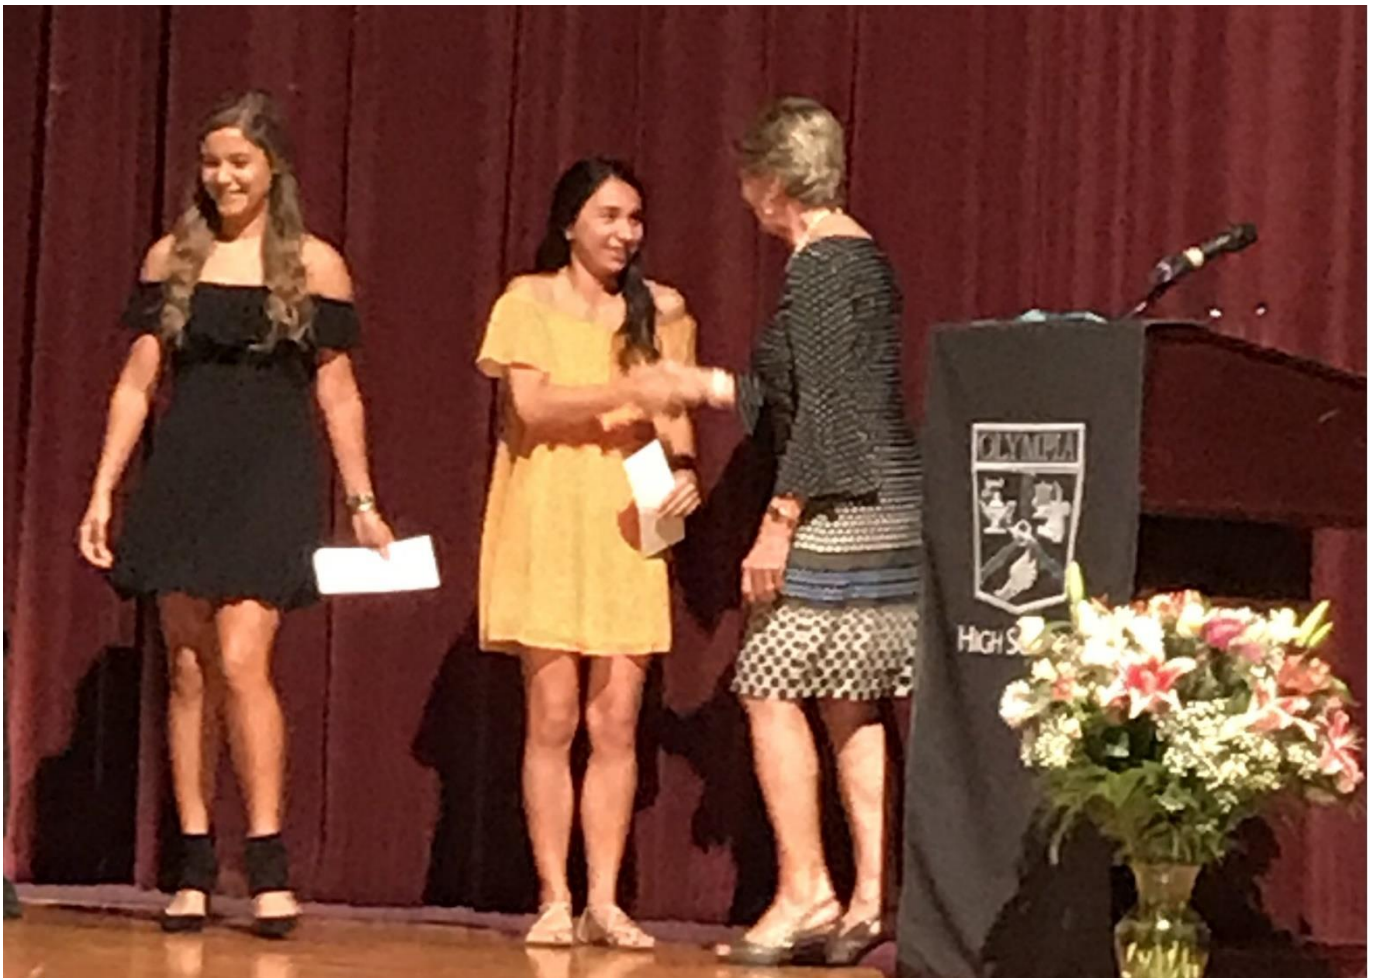

Johanna is survived by her 3 daughters: Maryke Lee (Craig), Marion Hake (Dan), and Maureen Abend (Paul). 7 grandchildren: Chris Lee (Dania), Jennifer Gardiner (Charles), Kevin Lee (Ashley), Ryan Dabold (Kiwi), Sarah Dabold, Alyssa Lenga (Pete), Chelsea Abend. 12 great-grandchildren: Allison and Kaitlyn Lee; Jonas, Charlotte and Audrey Gardiner, Madison and Carson Lee; Ella, Lily and Harper Dabold, Michael and Alexis Lenga.

A service in celebration of her life will be held Monday, May 21, 2018, 11:00am at St. Luke's United Methodist Church in Windermere, officiated by Dr. David Stephens.
