THE FOUR-WAY TEST

of the things we think, say or do

1. Is it the TRUTH?
2. Is it FAIR to all concerned?
3. Will it build GOODWILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?
4. Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?

PROGRAM FOR THE WEEK:

Myra Kinnie & Gail Waxman Authors

Myra Kinnie & Gail Waxman grew up in the small all white town of Ocoee. Since their lives were centered in this West Orange County community, they accepted their daily lives as being normal and typical. They never heard any facts, only idealized gossip, about the riot that occurred on Election Day, 1920.

Despite 80 years having passed, it was still a sore subject for many. The advent of the computer age assisted in expanding historical research. New information concerning the issues that surrounded that volatile election throughout Florida and the United States became readily accessible. The culmination of this information was important in understanding what led to the tragic events of the Ocoee Massacre and its aftermath.

After years of research, they decided to write this book to shed some light on what happened. They decided to create a fictionalized story, told from the perspective of a young, white girl who bore witness to what occurred. The account from the point of view of the black participants and victims remains to be written. We continue to believe in Voltaire's dictum that "To the living we owe respect, but to the dead we owe only the truth."

MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

Fellow Rotarians,

We have a great presentation in the morning so I hope you can make the meeting. In addition, we need to have some last minute discussion about where we are on the planning of our event Cinco de Mayo. May 5th and June 9th are the two dates to remember!

District conference is coming up next weekend, May 11 & 12 right here in Orlando at the World Marriott so do try to attend. It is important for you to see that we are only part of the much bigger Central Florida district of Rotary.

We had a small but effective Board meeting last week which you will be hearing more about tomorrow.

We are still in need of a President Elect to support Don and become President of the club for the year 2019-2020. Remember, 2019 is our club's 50th year celebration! Please give this some consideration.

Yours in Service Norma
