MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

Fellow Rotarians,

It is my pleasure to serve as your 2019-2020 President of Rotary of Windermere.

We had a delightful treat by the Edgewood Children's Ranch kids who sang for us at our Christmas party last Monday night! We had a great crowd and much fun. Thanks to all who help with the food, set up and everything!

We served at the Ocoee Christian Center on Sunday and had a very nice and appreciative crowd. Thanks to those who brought food and served.

We will have the last Board meeting of 2019 on Wednesday night at 6:30 pm at the Sutton's house. Do come if you can as we have some business to attend to and we will have some good food and drinks as well!

My theme " I Believe..." holds different values and meanings for each person which is so important in order to grow our organization.

I Believe in my heart we will have great success as the 2019-2020 team of Rotary Club of Windermere.

Yours in Rotary Service Doug

The Rotary Club of Windermere has created an online registry for our Military heroes (active, retired, deceased) who are either from the local area or who are family and/or friends of area residents. Our goal is to create a respectable list of our Military service men and women online then to record these names and dates into a quality book to be put on public display in the Windermere Library. The site is ready now, although we will continue to enhance and improve it as we see entries generated. The link is <http://windermereveterans.com>. The cost is $50 per entry. If you have a loved one who served or is currently serving, please consider honoring them by adding them to this registry as a record of our local military history. Thank you.

Party with a Purpose
On or Around 29th February 2020

“Earlier this year, your membership team launched 'Leap into Rotary' encouraging Clubs to have a social get together around the 29th of February 2020, fostering fun and fellowship for existing members and as an introduction to Rotary for prospective members. Many parties are already being worked on throughout our Zone, after all who doesn't like a party. Need more information-watch the Zoom Video in the Resources section if the Zone 33/34 Web site or send me an email and we'll send you a timeline to work to. And for those already working on their planned event, let us know if we can help, or pass on any advice you have for others who are just starting out on the organizing process.”

OUR ROTARY FAMILY

DAY 14 Uncle Tom arrived and we provisioned the vessel with all sorts of good healthy food. After the vessel was squared away. I gave Uncle Tom a couple of reading assignments. I am very glad that he is a fast reader. There will be a test in the morning, so he maybe up all night studying. There will also be pop quizzes along the way!!!

We are going to wait for low tide when the tide is slack before we move the boat to the fuel dock at 7:30am. There is a very strong current in the Marina and they do not really allow sailboat movements when the tide is not slack. We will then head down the channel which has been reported to be very shallow. Should be an interesting day.

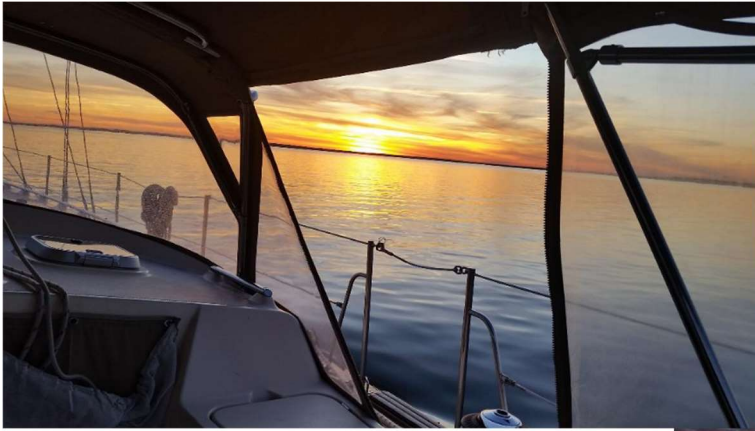

DAY 15 Today, started with a beautiful sunrise and ended with a beautiful sunset. In-between, was interesting. Today, was definitely a "Pucker Factor" day. We went through some low area during almost low tide and watched the depth meter read 7 to 8 feet for long periods of time and we draw 5 feet. One spot, we went through an area at almost high tide and had 6 feet showing. We did not hit the bottom, but we thought any minute that we get stuck. Someone, above was looking after us today. We are once again, anchored in the ICW for the evening right off of Cumberland Island. We cooked Bison burgers and had a nice salad for dinner.

We went by the huge container that was have a bad day, week, year? Yes, it is laying over on it's side with 4,200 new cars in it. BEWARE of cheap cars for sale on the internet!

Here is the sunrise.

Here is the sunset.
Just simply, breathing taking beautiful!!

We should be somewhere around Jacksonville tomorrow, maybe St. Augustine.

DAY 16 Everyday is always different. Never the same thing twice. Today, we left our anchorage which was right on very south point of Cumberland Island and just inside of the channel leading to the Ocean. Left at our usual 6:30am and cruised into the Sunrise as we headed out into the ocean. The ocean was great, winds 10-15 knots with 1-2 seas. Saw lots of dolphins. Entered into St. John's River/Jacksonville inlet(Fort George Inlet) and went by all of the Navy ships.

My Uncle was able to get in touch with one of his very dear friend that he has known for 50 years that lives just south of Jacksonville. We were able to get a slip at the Palm Cover Marina and arrived around noon. His friend and his friend's brother and wife came over and spent the day visiting on the boat. We had a wonderful time. After they left, I snuck a nap in for about an hour, and then my Uncle treated me to a very nice Mexican meal with dessert(flan).

My Uncle is on the far right, with the Jeep tee-shirt.
Hmmm...I would how he got that tee-shirt!!

Tomorrow, we are on the final leg. We might just make it to the home dock around 6ish, or me might anchor out and come in the next day around noon. It all depend on the weather, tides, etc.

DAY 17 We made it Daytona Beach, the Halifax Marina with out any problems or issues. I would like to thank my crew; Mike Kelley, Steve Amburgey and Uncle Tom. We did not get stuck on the Bottom, hit any Bridges or Boats and avoided Bad weather. It was an absolutely wonderful experience cruising down the ICW. I witness all sort of sights and made new friendships and got to learn more about my friends who responded back to my emails with their stories. Yes, I would do it all over again. I am going to perform some upgrades on the vessel and then set off again, somewhere. Any suggestions?

During the trip, I am glad that I did not have to use my emergency gear that I got for the crew. We were blessed in some many different ways, that I can not count them all.

Here the boat at the slip with all the the cover put on her.

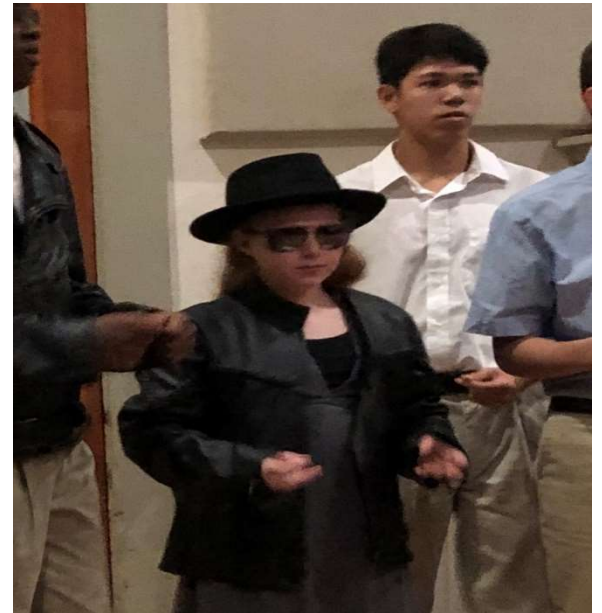

For everybody that kept asking me, yes, I did get "Scruffy"!!!

Love you all!!! Thank you for sharing my journey. Please take care and have a Blessed Holiday.

Sea ya,
Sterling
