MESSAGE FROM OUR PRESIDENT

Greetings Windermere Rotary Family

It is my pleasure to serve as your 2021-2022 President.

My eight years as a Rotarian has been a very positive and rewarding time for me in many ways - getting to know all of you and others who came and went, building friendships, connecting with the club and the community, using and sharpening some of my skills, learning a lot, enjoying the fellowship, and having some fun.

After serving in several other club roles, I was encouraged, gently prodded, and nominated to serve as president. I found the prospect intimidating, especially given the long list of distinguished and respected past presidents. One of them, Stephen Withers - Past President, friend and neighbor, and my Rotary sponsor - clinched it for me when he reminded me that he said he would rejoin the club if I was president.

Our Area District Governor, Greg Gorsky, told me that the president does not run the club, that the Board runs the club. The president sets goals, prepares a budget, encourages communications, plans and runs meetings, and tracks progress. The Board makes the decisions, forms committees, works the details, reaches out to the membership and other volunteers for help, and gets the work done. And this year's board and committee members, a dedicated group of seasoned Rotarians and a few relatively new members, did Service Above Self in a big way - with solid accomplishments, membership growth, strong relationships, and fun times - earning recognition from the community and the District. It's been a great year, and a memorable one.

I thank you all for your hard work, support, participation, and encouragement and for the trust that you placed in me. I look forward to supporting Jim Schuppert, past president of his club in California and our incoming president, and continuing to be a productive member of the Board and the club.

Yours in Rotary Service - Frank

LATEST NEWS (The Conversation)

A post-pandemic world may still have COVID-19 in it. Many researchers suspect that the SARS-CoV-2 coronavirus will become endemic, meaning it's always around, with some level of constant ongoing transmission. The viruses that cause the flu and the common cold, for instance, are endemic.

Sara Sawyer, Arturo Barbachano-Guerrero and Cody Warren, a team of virologists and immunologists from the University of Colorado Boulder, wrote that SARS-CoV-2 might hit the sweet spot for a virus to become endemic by being just the right degree of transmissible: "Generally speaking, viruses that are highly contagious, meaning that they spread really well from one person to the next, may never die out on their own because they are so good at finding new people to infect."

SARS-CoV-2 spreads easily through the air. Even people who aren't experiencing any symptoms can pass the coronavirus to others. These factors, along with today's heavily interconnected global society, make it unlikely COVID-19 is going away completely anytime soon.

For now, these scholars write, the best we can likely hope for is stabilized rates of SARS-CoV-2 that settle down into predictable patterns, like flu season. If you want to help hurry things along toward this end stage, do what you can to make yourself an inhospitable host for the coronavirus – most notably, keep up to date with recommended COVID-19 vaccinations.

Vaccination Update as of June 24, 2022

4 786 171 104 fully vaccinated or 61.4 % Worldwide

222 106 166 fully vaccinated or 67.4 % US population

14 517 927 fully vaccinated or 68.3 % Florida population

976 129 fully vaccinated or 73.88 % Orange County

Latest News (The Conversation)

What is Paxlovid and how does it work?

Paxlovid is a made up of two protease inhibitors, including one used in treating HIV as a booster medicine. Protease inhibitors are synthetic drugs that block enzymes that viruses need to replicate. The combination in Paxlovid basically prevents the coronavirus from completing its life cycle.

But, the more medically complicated a person is – which means the more health conditions they have and medications they take – the more likely it is that Paxlovid will interact with one of their drugs. That means that one drug could alter or interfere with how another drug works, which can be dangerous.

However, Paxlovid was studied only in unvaccinated patients. So it's not clear how well it will work in a vaccinated population – that is, we don't know what additional benefit it gives on top of vaccination.
