FEBRUARY 7 MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

Josh Abraham and I had the pleasure of going to a recent meeting of the Lake Buena Vista Club as part of Josh's red badge program. We are both happy to have the club's special Rotary pin with the Mickey ears. It is fun to visit other Rotary clubs both locally and when travelling. Such visits provide the opportunity to see what projects other clubs are involved in and to meet your fellow Rotarians. If you haven't already, give it a try sometime soon.

See you at tomorrow's meeting!

Yours in Rotary Jim

February 2022

Goal Setting Is Smarter Now

Setting goals for membership is no longer guesswork! On February 13, we'll give you a new MAP website that helps you set realistic goals.

It also gives you specific steps, tailored to your club, that help you achieve your goals. It will even make a survey for your club to help you find ways to satisfy your members even better.

The site will be revealed at the MAP webinar on Monday, February 13, at 6 pm ET. Here's a 60 second fun preview: <https://youtu.be/HYE1vc9RVik> (An ad will pop up first, but you can skip it after 5 seconds.)

You can, 1) register for the MAP webinars, 2) find resources, and 3) listen to prior webinar recordings at the link, below: <https://www.rizones33-34.org/membership-action-plan/>

Be sure that your club has designated a Club Membership Chair. Please forward this newsletter to other members of your club. MAP and the seminars are for all who are interested in growing Rotary membership.

Go to the website for Rotary Zones 33 and 34 to see what resources are available to you and your club.
